

Brian Schoettler serves as Minister of Music & Organist at First United Methodist Church in Evanston, Illinois where he directs their Chancel, Handbell, Gospel, and Children's Choirs and plays their recently restored Austin pipe organs. He is also an organ faculty member at the Music Institute of Chicago and adjunct faculty Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary. He earned his Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Organ Performance and Literature at the Eastman School of Music. Previously, Brian earned his Master of Music degree in Organ Performance and Composition at Westminster Choir College and his bachelor's degree in Organ Performance, Church Music, and Instrumental Music Education at Carthage College.

Brian has participated in summer composition programs at Yale's Institute of Sacred Music and with the European American Musical Alliance at the Schola Cantorum in Paris and his compositions have been performed throughout the United States including a recent premiere at Walt Disney Concert Hall in Los Angeles. His hymn, While seeking refuge from the storms of life, was recently selected as the winning submission for the Notre Dame Children's Choir's 2016 Hymn Competition. Brian is a member of the American Guild of Organists (AGO), the Association of Lutheran Church Musicians (ALCM), the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers (ASCAP), and the Fellowship of United Methodists in Music and Worship Arts.